Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a paper conveying apparatus for conveying sheets of paper in an image forming apparatus such as a copying machine, and in particular, relates to a paper conveying apparatus with a conveying ability for transporting a sheet of paper on the contact surface of a drum. 2. Description of the Related Art In a conventional copying machine, after the front edge of a sheet of paper on the contact surface of a drum is aligned with the paper aligning position of a photo-conductive drum, a control unit drives a sheet of paper from a manual feed tray (which will be referred to as a “first tray” hereinafter) to the photo-conductive drum. As the sheet of paper is being conveyed along the drum, the rear edge of the sheet of paper is aligned with the paper aligning position of a transfer drum, and the control unit drives a sheet of paper from a second tray to the transfer drum. Accordingly, the front and rear edges of the sheet of paper on the contact surface of the drum can be aligned with the paper aligning positions of the photo-conductive drum and the transfer drum. In the first-mentioned conventional paper conveying apparatus, the first tray accommodates sheets of paper of various sizes, and if the sheet of paper stored in the first tray is larger than the area of the first tray, the sheet of paper may be conveyed toward the photo-conductive drum at an angle. In the second-mentioned conventional paper conveying apparatus, the second tray accommodates sheets of paper of various sizes, and the larger-sized sheet of paper stored in the second tray may be conveyed toward the transfer drum at an angle. In these apparatuses, the distance between the edge of a sheet of paper in the first tray or the second tray and the contact surface of the drum is secured by conveying the sheet of paper by a roller or the like. In the conventional paper conveying apparatuses described above, however, because the sheet of paper is conveyed by the roller, a bending force is applied

Well this is great news. Thanks for the input. I was considering this and the TinyAdBar is just too small for me. It's only 8x7 and ads are also too small to click on. I will now use the Mutex instead. Niranjan 09-19-08, 08:56 indicator, so you know when it's muted. Is there any chance you'd consider making a version that works in Firefox? Ian - Donate button above for all the $$$ folks ;-) Mr.Paul 09-19-08, 10:01 AM Would be nice if the sound muted had a visual indicator, so you know when it's muted. Is there any chance you'd consider making a version that works in Firefox? There's an open issue with the widget so it doesn't work in Firefox yet. I'd love to do it, but Yahoo is not responding to my requests to get it up and running. Niranjan 09-19-08, 10:17 AM You can make one for Firefox, although as I have heard Yahoo widgets don't work in FF (or if they do, they don't work well).

Mainpuri district has embarrassed the administration, which now wants to conduct a psychological test on her. A police officer in Mainpuri, who did not want to be named, said the woman was brought to the police station on Tuesday evening after she and her husband had an argument in the city. She told the police that she was depressed as her husband had been going to the city to work in the last few months and she was the only one at home, but her life did not seem to get any better. "We tried to reason with her and told her to open the door and talk to us. But she said she was feeling depressed and would end her life," the officer said. After she said she was going to end her life, she was taken to the Mainpuri police station. The officer said they offered her a cup of tea and asked her what she wanted them to do. "But she did not say anything and just turned around and walked out of the station. We are not sure whether she was going to end her life or run away, but we want to know how she felt," the officer said. The police station in-charge, Sub-Inspector P S Yadav, who was on duty on Tuesday night, said, "We are searching for her. If she is found, we will take her to the mental hospital for a psychological test." An official in the health department of Mainpuri said that a mental test was being conducted on the woman and they were expecting results within five days. "If she is found to be normal, she will be kept in the custody of the local civil hospital and would be taken to the Mainpuri sub-divisional police station on Thursday afternoon for sending her to her home. If she is found to be mentally unstable, we will take her to the mental hospital," the official said. in on the economic argument? It was the first time I heard that argument, and I just thought "wait a minute, that's not what we need to be doing. We need to be building new stuff." ~~~ throwaway_yy2Di \- I agree. \- I'd like to see more businesses "transitioning" into new products ([
