This technology offers more accurate, precise and meaningful control than ever before, as each moment of a football match is now recreated with utmost fidelity. “This is the FIFA player we’ve been looking for,” said Producer Tim Beattie. “It’s like having a real life performance coach guiding you through each touch, tackle, move and pass. The player on the ball is all action. The player without the ball is all muscle and movement. The player is alive as never before and gamers can do something never before possible in any other video game.” FIFA 22 also introduces the Player Impact Engine, which is designed to increase player intelligence and improve match flow and player control. The more a player is involved in the game, the more it will learn about the player’s unique skills and unlock new animations and abilities. Players also continue to build their stamina by making runs up and down the pitch and recover from fatigue by automatically drinking water from the pitch. “We’ve introduced a first-of-its kind game mechanic called the ‘Referee Assistant,’ which provides objective, in-game feedback as the game is being played,” explained Producer Aleksandar Evtimov. “The Assistant will flag off teammates who make errors, assign fouls, and it will correct the game’s AI officials to ensure fair play. It can also be used to manipulate the game, and even be engaged to distract or get under the skin of a rival opponent.” The following table provides a detailed overview of some of the key features introduced by FIFA 22: Welcome to Ultimate Team Ultimate Team Mode FIFA 22 introduces Ultimate Team Mode, the biggest Ultimate Team update ever. Over the years we've introduced a wide variety of game modes for gamers of all abilities; we have a Soccer game mode, plus Football and Ultimate Team modes. All of them are built for competitive fun, by players of all levels. We are constantly pushing to create the best football experience possible, so that everyone can play together. How does Football mode work? The Soccer game mode is easy to get to grips with but the Football game mode takes dedication and skill. You can choose to play a new knockout tournament that includes all 32 teams in the world, or you can play a standard single-season mode against world-class sides like Barcelona, Bayern Munich, Juventus or Manchester United. In Football mode, customise every aspect of your team. From kits to formations, and even the style of play (evolved Soccer IQ and Defending AI) to control the opposition and make the match yours. Can I play for any team I want? Of course! There are currently over 3,400 clubs in the game, all made from the clubs' real-world identities and played by their real-world fans. The focus on authenticity means that all clubs have the same players with the same attributes. Whether you're a global fan of Inter Milan or a hardcore Liverpool supporter, you'll find thousands of real supporters from the clubs' real fan groups. These real supporters are your matchday heroes. What is Pass the Ball? Pass the Ball is a new way for you to play your favourite clubs. It's about the fundamentals of football and about creating that same feeling that real clubs give when you play them.
